SUBJECT: Determination Regarding Attendance by NASA Employees at an Post-Launch Reception hosted by Pratt & Whitney Rocketdyne on February 7, 2010

NASA invitees, accompanied by their spouse or a guest, may attend a post-launch reception sponsored by Pratt-Whitney Rocketdyne at the Hilton Cocoa Beach Oceanfront Hotel, Cocoa Beach, in Florida, on Sunday, February 7, 2010, from 6:00 a.m. – 9:00 a.m. This event is to celebrate the STS-130 space shuttle launch.

This event will be a widely-attended gathering of approximately 300 representatives of government, the aerospace industry and the community. Food and refreshments will be served at a cost of approximately $35 per person. I find that the reception meets the requirements of a "widely attended gathering" as defined in 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(2). I have determined that free attendance at the above mentioned reception is in the interest of the agency because it will further agency programs and operations.

Accordingly, NASA employees that have been invited to attend may accept free attendance at the event. They may also accept invitations for accompanying spouses or guests. NASA employees whose duties may substantially affect Pratt-Whitney Rocketdyne, such as by way of procurement duties, should seek an individual determination pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.204(g)(3)(i), regarding participation in this event from their local ethics counselor.

Moreover, NASA employees who are in non-career positions in which Executive Order 13490, requires signing an ethics pledge may only attend if they reimburse the sponsors the cost of the reception for themselves and accompanying guests.
